

Faculty Review of Open eTextbooks

The California Open Educational Resources Council has designed and implemented a faculty review process of the free and open etextbooks showcased within the California Open Online Library for Education (www.cool4ed.org). Faculty from the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California were invited to review the selected no/low cost and open etextboks using a rubric. Faculty received a stipend for their efforts and funding was provided by the State of California, the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Very well organized... ready for a student or a teacher to implement! I liked the SLO's, lessons were organized into bite size segments, liked the critical thinking and chronology sections. Good for those new to online experience, 17 chapters similar to traditional 1 chapter per week semester, pre-post test good for assessment data.

Please provide comments on any aspect of the subject matter of this textbook:

- The answer keys state that the "correct answers are bolded," but the answers are not bolded (though they are on the PDF version). "Patronado" should be spelled "Patronato" in section 2.2.2 ("The Spanish in the Age of Discovery") or page 33 in the PDF version. "Grenada" should be "Granada" in the same section and page as stated in the previous sentence. Other issues include:
 - It is standard practice to refer to Bartolomé de las Casas by his Spanish name rather than the anglicized version "Bartholomew de las Casas" (see pages 79 and 89 in PDF or sections 3.3.1 and 3.4.2 in online version). The same holds true for José de Anchieta, which is spelled as Joseph de Anchieta on page 89 (section 3.4.2).

- “Hernán do de Soto” should be “Hernándo de Soto” on page 83 (sections 3.3).
- In the phrase “However, The Jesuit experience in Canada,” the “t” in “the” should be lower-case (page 94 or section 3.5.1).
- I believe that “foordways” should be “foodways” (page 99 or section 3.6).

Can the textbook be printed easily?				X
Does the user interface implicitly inform the reader how to interact with and navigate the textbook?						X
How easily can the textbook be annotated by students and instructors?					X
